

Induction, Communism Talk Featured at Board Meeting

President Jack Schmidt presided at the Aug. 8 meeting of the Torrance-Lomita board of realtors which included induction of 32 new members and a talk on communism and how it grows.

Norris Doty, chairman of the multiple listing committee, reported sales amounting to $29,658,000 for 1962 to Aug. 7 as compared to $17,012,000 for the same period last year.

He reported a total of 3155 listings and 1476 sales to date as compared to 2270 listings and 904 sales for the same period in 1961. Jack Schmidt commented that the 1962 sales volume to date almost equals the sales for the whole year of 1961.

TOASTMASTERS

Don Marlo, President of the Board sponsored Toastmasters Club 646, explained the club as an organization devoted to purpose. "Toastmasters provides the continuous experience necessary to achieve speaking ability," Marlo said.

Realtor, Geneva Meara, membership committee chairman, presented 32 applicants for board membership. Realtor Mary Toombs presented the objectives, obligations and benefits to the new members. Past-president Paddy Ryan officiated as installing officer.

Why Communism

Program Chairman George Hanback presented Jack E.

Rogers, Coast Federal Savings, who discussed the growth of communism. He described the efforts of the communists as a "World War III, or the Ideological War."

He quoted the communists philosophy that socialism provides a road to communism. He cited various government programs as evidence of a draft toward socialism in the United States.

He offered two explanations why socialism and communism might be accepted. It offers free goods and services, and the propaganda is often effective. Rogers offered a thought-provoking slogan: "Will you and your family be free in 1983?" This is the year the communists predict achievement of their success in the United States.

A floral display by Agnew Garden Florists was furnished through courtesy of Paul Hill, R. E. President Schmidt expressed appreciation for the turkey luncheon made possible through the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McEwen, R.E. A drawing was held for door prizes contributed by the Torrance Press and other area newspapers.

The Aug. 22 luncheon will feature Long Beach City College. Members from the college staff will be present to describe real estate courses to be offered this fall.
